

ST. DOMINGO.

Late and Important Intelligence—Triumph of the Revolution on an Expedition of Ex-President Diaz—His Arrival at St. Thomas—Action of the Provisional Government, &c.

St. Domingo City, June 9.—The revolution has triumphed. Mr. Diaz leaves to-day, in the Spanish steamer Barcelona, for St. Thomas. He had been expected, for the last few days, commissioners from the provisional government, to whom he desired, apparently, to deposit his functions of executive power; but, on the 25th ult., he received the tidings that General Pimentel had advanced with a superior force in the neighborhood of San Carlos, a suburb of the city of St. Domingo, and received a despatch from said General, by a courier, announcing that the city must be surrendered within forty-eight hours.

Baez answered the despatch, and wanted to enter into negotiations; but, owing to the rumor that the garibon had opened the gate of the city to the invading army, panic and consternation prevailed. Baez sought an asylum in the French Consulate. The cry was at the Consulate: "Sacre qui peut!" The protection of that flag saved him from the mob, to whose fury he would otherwise have been sacrificed.

A Provisional Government was installed, under General Pimentel, and order was soon re-established. It was determined to demand Mr. Diaz from the French Consul for trial; but, after mature consideration, it was decided, to prevent any further disturbance, to send him his passports and get rid of him. He was finally allowed to embark on board the Spanish steamer Barcelona. His brother, Juan M. Baez and General Pedro Guillermo, the one who aided the riot that brought Mr. Diaz to power, have been imprisoned, and will be tried as incendiaries. The electoral colleges are to be convened, and the presidential election is to take place by instantaneous general suffrage.

The candidate who probably will be elected is General Pimentel. His patriotism and a megalomania are well known—unlike Mr. Diaz, who, after having occupied the rank of Field-Marshal in the Spanish army, renounced that title on the evacuation of the island by Spain, and caused himself, by means of money and a revolutionary movement, to be elected President.

The unanimous rising has not caused the least trouble or bloodshed in the country. The city of St. Domingo, being the seat of government, is the only place where some momentary disorder prevailed. The island is positively quiet, and no doubt will remain so for a long time.

St. Thomas, June 12.—The Spanish steamer Barcelona, from St. Domingo, arrived this morning, bringing as passengers Mr. Diaz, ex-President of that republic, and some of his suite.

He leaves to-morrow morning in the British royal mail steamer Shannon for Europe.—N. Y. Herald.

He was called upon to fill the position of Mr. Fawcett, who was not on hand.

The Nival Queen will be produced in admirable style this evening for the summer season. The cast is to be very fine according to announcement.

The post mortem examination of a little girl aged seven years, who died in Bethlehem, Conn., revealed the fact that her death was caused by particles which had been bitten from her finger nails. They were swallowed, and sticking into the sides of her stomach, caused ulceration, and death ensued.

From a report made to Congress, it appears that Government has provided 6075 artificial limbs to soldiers—2124 arms, 3784 legs, 44 hands, feet, and 104 other appliances; twenty-two artificial manufacturers of artificial limbs supplied the Government, and the cost was $367,728.
